

Unit D/650/6128

Make sure actions in the workplace aim to protect the environment

Learning Outcome - The learner will:	Assessment Criterion - The learner can:
1 be able to identify risks to the environment arising from the workplace.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">1.1 identify people in the workplace to whom environmental matters are reported.1.2 confirm they are up to date on environmentally friendly working practices relevant to the workplace.1.3 identify any current working practices in own job role that could cause harm to the environment.1.4 identify materials, products or equipment in any part of own job role which could cause harm to the environment.1.5 report any differences between legal regulations and workplace instructions and the actual use of materials and products hazardous to the environment.1.6 explain the importance of reporting environmental concerns to the responsible persons and how this is undertaken.
2 be able to minimise the risks to the environment arising from the workplace.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">2.1 research the relevant legal requirements and workplace environmental instructions for own job role.2.2 define within own capability and the scope of job responsibilities how to:<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) control the environmental hazardsb) promptly report environmental risks that the learner is unable to deal withc) pass on suggestions for limiting risks to the environment to the responsible person.2.3 apply the correct instructions for:<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) handling materials and products that can be harmful to the environmentb) their proper disposal.

Learning Outcome - The learner will:

Assessment Criterion - The learner can:

- | | | | |
|---|---|-----|---|
| 3 | know the legislation relating to environmental matters that affect own workplace. | 3.1 | explain own responsibilities for the environment as defined by any specific legislation covering own job role and: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) responsibility for controlling hazards to the environmentb) particular risks to the environment that may be present in own workplace and job rolec) how to use resources and materials effectively and efficientlyd) the importance of remaining alert to the presence of hazards to the environment in the whole workplacee) the responsibility for items (materials and equipment) that can be hazardous to the environmentf) the specific workplace environmental instructions covering own job roleg) specific working practices covering own job role. |
| | | 3.2 | discuss the importance of working with stakeholders within the organisation to apply ethical codes and sustainability practice within occupational safety and health. |
| | | 3.3 | describe the substances and processes categorised as hazardous to the environment. |
| | | 3.4 | explain workplace instructions for handling hazards to the environment that the learner is unable to deal with. |